

Action Day – July 6th 2013

Report by Robert Briggs

Our July working morning was very warm and with only 8 willing helpers we divided into 4 small groups, 3 teams worked on three different footpaths cutting back and strimming this year's growth. The other group worked on weeding and replanting some of the larger plants from the raised bed to the rear and side of the Harris Garden.