

Action Day – May 3rd 2014

Report & Photographs by Robert Briggs

Our May working morning was warm and sunny and with 6 helpers we split into three groups and worked on litter picking around the village, cutting back the overgrown vegetation on the steps leading down to four fields footpath as well as clearing away some dead trees and nettles on a bank on the side of park Lane.

The Harris garden was also looking very colourful with all the spring flowers.

