

Action Day – September 6th 2014

Report by Robert Briggs

A warm and cloudy September morning and with 6 willing helpers we worked in the Harris garden, cutting back the plants in the raised flower bed, dead heading roses, removing the weeds and nettles towards the back of the garden, along with trimming back the bushes that had started to overhang the footpath.

